Scheduling Mel FAQs

HOW FAR IN ADVANCE DO I NEED TO BOOK?

We suggest booking events 6-12 months in advance. However, you can check Mel's website (Where's Mel?) to see if she might be available on other dates.

WHAT TYPE OF EVENTS DOES MEL DO?

Mel presents Keynote and break-out sessions at Diocesan, Liturgical, and Women's Conferences. She is also available for parish and group events such as concerts, prayer services, spiritual presentations, and liturgical training. In addition, she can be scheduled for Parish Missions.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST FOR AN EVENT?

Mel's stipend is based on the number of presentations and days she will be at your event. Travel and lodging expenses are additional.

WHAT ARE THE DETAILS OF THE TRAVEL EXPENSES?

The ministry books all of Mel's travel and makes every effort to find the least expensive options. For airline, we book the most economical non-stop flight available. If a non-stop is not available, we will book Mel on the least expensive one-stop with the shortest overall travel time (plane size RJ-700 or larger). If Mel is driving to your event, mileage is charged @ 35 cents per mile and is based on the shortest travel time from Carson City, NV to your location. Lodging is typically booked at a Marriott, Hilton, or Hyatt brand hotel. If a group rate is available at a different brand, the ministry may book at that location if it has interior corridors and a good safety and cleanliness rating. Please note that Mel cannot stay in private homes or rectories. If local transportation (to/from airport and venue) is not provided by venue, it will be arranged as a rental car or taxi/Lyft services, whichever is less expensive. Travel typically runs from $500-$1000 depending on location and the number of days Mel is present at your event.

HOW CAN WE HELP COVER EVENT EXPENSES?

Keep in mind that the parish/group may offer the presentations at no charge to participants, collect registration fees or sell tickets (which are kept by the parish/group). You may also have free-will offering baskets set-up. Many venues use an event with Mel as a fund raiser. Some churches/groups sell tickets for the presentations especially concerts. Depending on your area, ticket prices are usually $10-15 per person. If lunch or dinner is included in the price, tickets can be offered at $20-$30 per person.

In addition, some groups have found a sponsor (local Christian bookstore, restaurant, or parishioner who might want to promote their business) to help cover Mel's stipend and/or travel expenses. In return, the sponsor(s) receives advertisement and can also sell/promote their business at the event.

MERCHANDISE TABLE

Mel will need a 6-ft. table to set-up CD's & books available for purchase before and after the keynote, workshop, retreat, or concert. She will need a volunteer to help with sales. The volunteer should arrive 30 minutes prior to the start of the event and remain 20 minutes after.
